

SWISH EASY VICTOR; SO IS SINGLE STICK AT LOCUST VALLEY

Twelve Hundred Society Folk
Well Repaid for Trip to Piping Rock Meet.

MORE NOVEMBER THAN
JUNE, BUT GOOD SPORT

It was more like November than June at Piping Rock yesterday, but the twelve hundred society folk who prefer steeplechasing to the more conventional kind of racing were well repaid for their trip to Locust Valley. They saw Thomas Hitchcock's good jumper Swish defeat a smart field in the North Shore Plate and Joseph E. Davis's better horse Single Stick beat a cleverer field in the Cooperstown Plate. And besides these there was a capital race on the flat at one mile for handicap horses of the 3 and up division—the Fox Point Plate—a sprint for two-year-olds of quality known as the Brookville Plate, and a couple of excellent events in which non-professional riders had a chance to show their skill.

The two steeplechases were disappointing in that several candidates for the famous Whitely Memorial steeplechase, which will be run on Saturday, did not accept the issue in spite of the fact that they were named to go overnight, but the events were spiritedly contested just the same.

Senegambian Starts Too Late.
Swish met The Elephant, Astute, Zellwood, Senegambian and Yario in the North Shore Plate and the talent made him favorite. For a spell it looked as though the popular confidence had been misplaced, for Astute and The Elephant got a long way in front of him the first turn of the field. When, however, Astute fell at the jump at the beginning of the straight, he interfered with The Elephant and Swish overhauled the latter in the run past the stand and to the clubhouse. The Elephant struggled for half a mile, fencing cleverly, but Swish finally had disposed of him before the head of the homestretch was reached the last time and he easily won from Senegambian, which came with a belated rush from a long way back, Zellwood ran out.

Mrs. Payne Whitney started a new aspirant for cross country fame in the Cooperstown Cabaret, a half brother of Sweep, and a big, flashy son of Delhi and Pink Domino. The reports of his work were so good the crowd made him favorite at 10 to 1 over Timber Wolf, which was held at 6 to 5, and Single Stick and Adventure, which found support at 4 to 1 and 5 to 2 respectively. Cabaret, fencing swiftly and smoothly, cut out the running for upwards of a mile and a half with a wide patch of daylight separating him from Timber Wolf and Single Stick. They got to him at the top of the hill and Single Stick, slipping past on the rail, assumed a commanding lead. Cabaret made a valiant effort to keep in front of Timber Wolf, but he too got by in the last hundred yards, to finish second a couple of lengths behind Single Stick and half a length in front of Adventure. The others were beaten off. They all jumped well and Cabaret will make him a mark in the best company when he learns a bit more of real steeplechasing.

Mustard a Disappointment.
Mustard, which W. B. Coe bought the other day from James McLaughlin for $5,000, was a disappointment in the Brookville Plate. Favorite at 7 to 1, he did not appear to like the sodden course. He lattered far in the rear while Savony, bearing the colors of Herbert L. Pratt, raced out with Plumose. Savony shook Plumose off at the last turn and came home easily in front of Plumose, the outsider. Mustard brought up third because Plumose stopped to a walk in the last fifty yards.

Mr. Pratt's Star Gaze, Saratoga cup winner last year, looked a good thing in the Fox Point Plate and the crowd took him at 7 to 10. But he was not able to keep up with Absconder and Ben Dale in the first half, and although he passed Ben Dale at the top of the hill, Absconder outran him in the home stretch, to win by three lengths. Volant and Doubtless stopped early. Doubtless' race at Belmont Park in the Amateur Cup seemed to have taken the edge off his speed. R. G. said after the finish that he intended to make a jumper of Ben Dale, which is one of the handiest horses in training.

Cloud, under the handling of John Tucker, won the Broad Hollow Plate, one mile and a furlong, in spite of a steady rain of 178 pounds.

FURS ARE THE FEATURE OF THESE JUNE COSTUMES

SOCIETY COLD AT RACES.
Autumnal Day Invading June Causes Discomfort at Piping Rock.

There was not much about the meet to suggest the first part of June. A threatening storm held off, but it did not prevent a large attendance. Many luncheon parties had been arranged for the clubhouse and it was intended to have them served on the veranda and on the lawn, but the temperature being more like mid-October it was found absolutely necessary to go inside and tables were hurriedly removed to the assembly room, which was filled as was also the regular dining room of the club.

After luncheon the boxes of the grand stand facing the race course filled up quickly with those who had come from the clubhouse and many others who had come from neighboring country places. Warm wraps and furs were very much in evidence and these covered up whatever bright costumes the women may have worn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carroll of Carrollton were in Dr. and Mrs. Preston P. Satterwhite's luncheon party, as were also Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Aldrich. They were joined after luncheon by Mrs. Cyril Dugmore and her daughter, Miss Florence Gilbert. In one of the other parties were Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Mrs. C. C. Cuyler, Mrs. James W. Markoe and Thomas P. Ryan.

Among others luncheon at the club were Mrs. Nelson Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Halsey, Birdseye B. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Coe, Mr. and Mrs. James R. McKee, Dr. and Mrs. Walter E. James, Stephen Van Houseler, H. Hobart Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer L. Schiff, Mr. and Mrs. Hartman K. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Davis, Mrs. Edward Van Ingen, Mrs. Oscar Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Griswold A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Baker, Mrs. Joseph Palmer Knapp, A. Robinson Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Parker Handy, Frederick T. Freilighuysen, Mr. and Mrs. Anson M. Beader, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Winthrop, Mr. and Mrs. J. Delano Kirlin, Miss Elizabeth Kirlin, A. Parker Weekes, Mrs. Edward Willes, Mr. John George Dutcher, Samuel Willets and Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Warner.

At the only table placed on the veranda was seated a party from Fuxedo which included Mrs. Richard Mortimer, Miss Eleanor Mortimer, Mr. and Mrs. John Rutherford, Miss Adelaide Cannon and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Fell. Among others luncheon in the club were Mrs. Franklin D. Petton, Miss Helen Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Winmill, Miss Hilda Holmes, Artemus H. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton W. Cary, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. G. Billings, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Halsey, Fander, Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Rollins, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Warner Baltzell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ross Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunter Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. G. Hermann Klineclut.

Among those who were seen later in the boxes and on the lawn facing the race course were Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Gerry, Mrs. Paul D. Cravath, Miss Vera Cravath, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Blair, Miss Nathalie Du Vivier, Miss Helen Byrne, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brook and their children, Mr. and Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Scarle Barclay and Mr. and Mrs. George Rose, who were together in one of the boxes; Mrs. I. Townsend Burden, Jr., Mrs. W. Goodly Lovewell, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Livermore, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney S. Brees, whose guest was Miss Sargent of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Bradish G. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Harriman, Mrs. Payne Whitney, with whom were her children, John Hay Whitney and Joan Whitney; Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Gilbert, Miss Anna Sands, William H. Sands, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Thieriot, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kierstead Hudson, Miss Muriel Winthrop, Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, Mrs. Claude Grahame White, Mrs. Archibald S. Alexander, Mrs. Courtland D. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gray Griswold and Miss Carol Harriman came with Mrs. C. C. Runney and Mrs. Robert L. Gerry. Mrs. Stephen Penolady, Jr., arrived rather late in the course of the race with Mrs. Frederick T. Freilighuysen. Among others on the lawn were Mrs. Goodhue Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith Hadden, Mrs. Frances Hadden, Mrs. R. Horace Gallatin, Mrs. P. Ambrose Clark, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Rustia, Frederick C. MacDonell, Mrs. William M. Fleitmann, Mrs. Louis Fleitmann, Mrs. Lawrence R. Eitman, Mrs. W. Lowe Rice, Charles D. Halsey, Birdseye B. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. E. SAY MAN THEY SUED SENT DEATH THREAT

Kopp Sisters Accuse Henry
Kaufman of Paterson as
"Black Hand."

WRITING EXPERT AGREES

NEWARK, N. J., June 2.—Constance, Norma and Florette Kopp of Wyckoff, who for at least six months were terrorized at their handsome home by a band of men whose identity has not yet been determined, took the stand in the Federal Court here today in an endeavor to prove Henry Kaufman, who conducts a silk dyeing establishment at Paterson, was the man responsible for all their worry.

They caused him to be indicted on the charge of sending them Black Hand letters, demanding money and threatening to shoot and kill them if they insisted upon prosecuting him for crashing into their carriage with his auto on July 14 last.

The Misses Constance and Norma testified that they had fired several shots at men they saw skulking in their back garden during the night, and the men had fled back at them.

Both young women testified to the receipt of the mysterious letters, and Miss Constance told of her work with Sheriff Robert N. Heath of Hackensack in running down the clues.

Miss Florette Kopp, sixteen and so attractive that she had been threatened with kidnapping, told of being followed by Italians while in Paterson, with the young women, if they continued their prosecution, was received before final judgment was entered. Kaufman was also fined $5 for annoying the young woman on another occasion, following the suit.

The trial will continue to-day.

MADDEN CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER

Gang Leader Elated Over Escaping Chair—May Get Twenty Years.

Owen Madden, leader of a band of young men on the West Side called the "Owen Madden Gophers," was convicted of manslaughter in the first degree last night before Judge Nott in General Sessions. He had been on trial for ten days for murder. Sentence will be pronounced Tuesday. The maximum penalty is twenty years in prison.

Madden was so elated over the verdict that he told his counsel, Charles E. Colligan, that he did not want to delay sentence and would take what was coming to him right away. He had been told he was in for an unfavorable verdict and feared he would be convicted of first degree murder.

Madden, with Arthur Beller and John McArdle, was held responsible for the killing of James Moore, called in gang circles "Patsy Doyle," in a saloon at Forty-first street and Eighth avenue. Beller later pleaded guilty to the shooting of Doyle and is now serving eighteen years imprisonment. McArdle is serving thirteen years.

With Madden in prison District Attorney Perkins said last night he knew of no other recognized gang leader at liberty except under heavy bonds who could be the threat to the city.

It was largely on the testimony of two girls, Margaret Everedean and Frieda Horner, that Madden was convicted. Both swore Madden had planned the death of Doyle.

The most important witness for the Government was William J. Kinsley, hand writing expert of New York, who said he was positive that Kaufman wrote the threatening letters.

Kaufman began his defense just before court adjourned. He denied that he wrote the letters in question or that he ever hid men to terrorize the girls.

Miss Constance Kopp attributes their siege to the accident which befell them in Paterson when Kaufman wrecked their carriage with his automobile. He was later obliged to settle the judgment that resulted from a civil suit, but the first letter threatening trouble to the young women, if they continued their prosecution, was received before final judgment was entered. Kaufman was also fined $5 for annoying the young woman on another occasion, following the suit.
